Description

A fine pair of regency period ormolu mounted cut glass, eight light chandeliers by John Blades. The main drop hung double band issuing flat-cut drip pans and diamond-cut candle nozzles, the central shaft formed as a urn from granulated spangles. This urn surmounted by another double band supporting drop-hung crooks cascading to the main band, the chandelier with a graduated basket of spangles below and terminating with a ormolu leaf pan and lapidary-cut finial. The chandeliers hung with double-pointed spangles and faceted icicle drops.
