FINE ANTIQUE LIGHTING & GLASS

AN EXTENSIVE SET OF REGENCY RUMMERS

£1,650

Description

This impressive assembled set of cut-glass stemware beautifully reflects the elegance and craftsmanship of the Regency period. Comprising a variety of sizes, the glasses are finely made with tapering bucket bowls and vertical flute cutting, enhancing their clarity and sparkle.

Each piece stands on a well-proportioned knop stem with a wide. The consistent design across the set creates a harmonious and refined appearance, ideal for a formal dining table.

This versatile collection would have served multiple functions, accommodating wine, water, and spirits, and exemplifies both practicality and sophistication in Regency entertaining.
